This group will provide a unique platform for BIPOC families to come together, share experiences, learn together and from one another, as well as grow as a community. Come let's connect with others who understand the unique intersection of special needs and BIPOC identities.

Let's share stories, strategies, and successes to empower each other on this journey.

Join our Regional Coordinator, Melanie Baker, for conversation, a place to share experiences, strategies, and successes to empower each other on this journey.
