

ADULT LITERACY & LANGUAGE PROGRAM OFFICE OF COMMUNITY EDUCATIONAL ENGAGEMENT

The Adult Literacy & Language Program (ALLP) offers free educational classes that address the needs of adult learners in the following areas:

HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY (HSE) CLASSES

For the National High School Equivalency Exam known as the GED Test. Classes are offered in Math, English, Social Studies, and Science. Students will be given the opportunity to take the GED Test and obtain their High School Equivalency Diploma.

PRE-HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY (PRE-HSE) CLASSES

For students who are not academically ready to take the GED Test and require additional help in English and Math. Students will learn the basic foundations in these subjects to prepare them for HSE classes.

English as a Second Language (ESL) CLASSES

Are offered for non-native English speakers who wish to improve their English language skills. Our English instruction is provided at high beginner and intermediate levels. Students are expected to have some basic English language skills

GED TESTING CENTER

We are a GED Testing site for High School Equivalency Testing. The test is offered in paper-based and computer-based versions, in English and Spanish.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Classes are offered during a 15 week period in the Fall and Spring.

All classes meet three times a week, three hours each day.

Morning classes are 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM and night classes are 6:30 PM to 9:30 PM.
